

NEIGHBORHOOD NETWORKS INVITES YOU TO:

ORGANIZING^T GET OUT^T THE^H PROGRESSIVE^E VOTE^I 2008^N AND^A BEYOND^N

A one-day conference with hands-on workshops

Saturday March 29
8:30 A.M. – 5:00 P.M.
Drexel University
Disque Hall, 32nd & Ludlow

Speakers & Workshop Leaders:

- The Honorable Michael Nutter: Mayor, City of Philadelphia
- Seth Williams: District Attorney Candidate 2005
and Former City Inspector General
- Jesse Brown: City Council, 8th District Candidate 2007
- Arshad Hasan: Democracy for America, Executive Director
- Anne Dicker: Philly for Change founder,
1st Senatorial District (Pa.) Candidate
- Rodnie Jamison: PA Progressive Majority, Executive Director
- Daniel Hunter: Casino-Free Philadelphia, Founder
- Tony Payton: PA State Rep 179th District (Philly)

Making change happen at election time – in the neighborhood and on campus. Keep the change going beyond election season in Philly, Harrisburg and DC – the long haul. Hear from seasoned civic activists on the issues as well as creative approaches to issue organizing. Hands-on workshops on voter registration, getting out the vote and organizing YOUR 'hood.

Full-day event – just $20 (includes breakfast, box lunch & materials)

For more information call 215-568-4990 or see: www.phillynn.org

Send pre-registration to: Neighborhood Networks • Post Office Box 7762 • Philadelphia, PA 19101

Please include your name, address, e-mail and phone number.

CO-SPONSORED BY: ACORN, DEMOCRACY FOR AMERICA, DREXEL DEMOCRATS, PROGRESSIVE MAJORITY